

Physics 273, Fall 2007, Challenge # 6, Intensity/Distance

NAME: _____

In class we measured the intensity as a function of distance from a light bulb. How well do the data measured confirm the expected power-law behavior?

There are two parts to this question: 1) is it a power law?, and 2) if it's a power law, what is the exponent?