

In a snowstorm last winter, some regions of the Washington beltway were left with spots of slippery ice.

If you are driving at 60 miles/hour and see a large patch of ice ahead of you, you should

1. slam on your breaks
2. steer to avoid it as best you can
3. speed up
4. do nothing
5. ...