A ball rolls is rolling at a constant speed along a horizontal track as shown.

It comes to a hill and has enough speed to get over it.

By thinking about its speed as it goes, sketch a graph of the velocity of the ball as a function of time.