

WOMEN'S ADVISORY COMMITTEE PRESENTS

Women's History Month - March 2003

Goddard Celebrates

Women Pioneering The Future

Wednesday, March 19, 2003

Building 3 Auditorium, 11:30 a.m.– 12:30 p.m.
(Questions and Answers, 12:30 p.m. - 1:00 p.m.)

On the spirit of the NASA mission to understand, explore, and inspire, the Goddard Women's Advisory Committee invites you to share the experiences of four pioneering women. These women represent government, industry, and academia and they are making a difference! This session includes perspectives on leadership, ethics, values, equality, and diversity.

Please plan to join us.

Our distinguished panel includes:

Amy Comstock - Director, U.S. Office of Government Ethics

Margaret Gilligan - Deputy Associate Administrator for Regulation and Certification of the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA)

Susan Torroella - CEO of Columbia MedCom Group and President, Medicalliance, Inc.

Ellen Williams - Ph.D. Professor and Director of the Materials Research Science and Engineering Center at the University of Maryland.

"Human history is a tale of boundaries encountered and surpassed, and surmounting each obstacle has required not only new technology and ingenuity but also courage, conviction, and the unrelenting human instinct to explore the unknown."

NASA 2003 Strategic Plan.

Brown bag lunches are welcome.
